Harvard. Time of periods—15 minutes. By STONEY MeLINN

Gear skies, a strong wind and throng of 52,000 greeted the Army and Navy when the stalwarts of Uncle Sam trotted out on the white-lined gridiron of Franklin Field for their twentyfootball struggle this afternoon. A retr came rolling across the stadium from the south side as the Middles, led by Captain Courcy, came quartered in the sections that usually house Pennsylvania students, rose to their feet and cheers for the N-A-V-Y

A few minutes later the Cadets fol-losed Captain Breidster in a sprint from the north end of the gymnasium and it was the Army's turn to encour-agement and greeting to the West Point

And there you have the story. The Army, with the bulk and the brawn, the heart to do or die, and a record which shows not one defeat, a rictory over Kansas and ties with Yale and Notre Dame, is confident; perhaps not overconfident, but possessed of the venjuresome spirit that is found in men who have what is recarded as the best ammunition and

Navy Men Not Boasting The Navy, equally as stout of heart, determined to fight to the bitter end. is melined to be sullenly quiet. These brave boys know that they are outweighed today: that they were defeated by Pennsylvania on this same field three weeks ago. They feel that they have nothing to boast about save the quality of fight which is a heritage to them from Annapolls teams that have fought this same gridiron battle n years gone by, sometimes with the

As a matter of fact, practically, all money. There is a gainst each other.

For the last decade or more Swarthman was at even money. There is a courtesy existing among Trinele Saint and Annapolis graduates which does not permit the asking or giving of odds. A true Army or Kays and was the same, season after season.
